Technical Inspection Stations

Prior to participating in the DE event, you must have your car technically inspected.

In general, any authorized Porsche / BMW dealer (or a dealer in the make of car you will be driving) can perform the technical inspection, as well as independent garages who service Porsches or BMW's, etc.

If the location you are interested in is not on the following list of Tech Stations, call them first. In any event, you must make an appointment for a technical inspection.

There may be a charge for this service.
