

Lone Star Region's Tour and Show-n-Shine at Camp For All

The LSR bunch enjoys finding a good excuse to hit the road with their P-cars and a drive to Burton, Texas for a Show-n-Shine at Camp For All was a great excuse to do so. Above, Hugo Zagaria captures the “Loves” parking lot looking like a Porsche dealership and above right, Hugo snaps a shot of a classic Targa, sans top, allowing the driver to enjoy the fresh air and country sunshine.

Below left, one has to wonder how John Picasa took the mid-turn photo of the Porsche train cruising the country roads. One hand on wheel and one on camera? Hmmmm..Below, John finds the LSR group cruising the Houston highway nose-to-tail in a wonderful display of Porsche machinery.
